Coach Kevin Witt, current, Aquatic's Director for Conroe ISD, has been named as the District's Head Diving Coach. He will continue to serve as Aquatic's Director. Before coming to CISD, Coach Witt was Head Women's Diving Coach for Colorado State University, an NCAA Division I institution, for 11 seasons from 2005-2016. Before that, Coach Witt taught 6th grade for 8 years in Fort Collins, Colorado, and was Head Diving Coach for Poudre School District in Colorado for 10 years. In this position, he coached athletes from 4 high schools, and multiple middle schools. He also owned and operated The Fort Collins Diving Club, a USA Diving and AAU Diving Club, for over 20 years.

While coaching at CSU, Coach Witt's divers earned multiple All Mountain West Conference honors, and hold all time school records in all three diving events (1 meter, 3 meter, and platform). Several divers qualified for, and made finals at both the Mountain West Conference Championships, as well as the NCAA Zone meet each year Coach Witt coached.

Over the course of 20 years, The Fort Collins Diving Club produced over 50 high school state finalists, 22 Colorado and Wyoming High School State Champions, 18 Interscholastic High School All-Americans, 1 National Interscholastic High School National Champion, multiple Zone and National Junior and Senior qualifiers, as well as 1 Junior Olympic National 1 Meter Champion in 2002, and 4 different AAU National Champions. Over 40 athletes from the club went on to dive at various NCAA Division I and Division II programs across the country. The Colorado High School Swim Coaches Association named Coach Witt it's Coach of The Year four times.

Coach Witt graduated from Colorado State University in 1993 with a Bachelor's Degree in Business Marketing and graduated from The University of Northern Colorado in 2000 with a Master's Degree in Elementary Education.
